Lee I am seeing her on Monday afternoon to get her response to the 4 complaints and there are more. The thing that is absolutely clear is that she cannot be placed in a management role. The option is to return her to BLP this week but an alternative would be to place her with you/GLA in a relevant equalities policy type role where she is not managing people until the end of her secondment. This would reduce the impact of this on her. What do you think?
